

(a) Sample points on the sphere surface

(b) Compute spherical coordinates and normals of the sampled points

(c) Transfer the spherical coordinates to the robotic hand

(d) The spherical coordinates remain the same in different hand configurations